KBA invites you to attend our next privately-held and exclusive Forum on 28.+29.03.2022 in London. A deep dive into the world of Real Estate Investment options and Private Wealth Management Solutions. With uncertain times and a volatile real estate investment climate, family offices and private wealth managers are increasing their allocation and interest in investing in real estate abroad. Be it direct investments, using private equity managers or the public markets; we will highlight some of the best real estate investment options available as well as options regarding alternative private wealth management solutions (with Osmium as the precious metal investment opportunity).
